

IDENTIFICATION VERIFICATION FORM

First-time applicants for Non-Destructive Testing (NDT) certification, X-Ray Fluorescence (XRF) Analyzer Operator certification, and the Exposure Device Operator (EDO) written examination are required to submit this form with their application to the Natural Resources Canada (NRCAN) National Non-Destructive Testing Certification Body (NDTCB). Please photocopy your valid Canadian Government recognized identification document(s) onto this form and have your employer or professional individual listed below complete the required information. Applicants cannot verify their own identity documents.

Acceptable Proof of Identification:

- One of these documents must include your full legal name, date of birth, photo, and signature. Your name must appear on the application form as it appears on your identification document.
- Examples of acceptable forms of identification are: passport; driver's license; military identification; Certificate of Indian Status; provincial or territorial health care card that includes your photo and signature (excluding Alberta, Manitoba and Newfoundland and Labrador).
- Documents that are in a language other than English or French must be translated by a certified translator. Copies of identification documents that are no longer valid or have been modified or redacted in any way are not acceptable.
